Transfer Student Profile

Molly Mannix '14 is a Psychology major and ABA minor at SJC who transferred from a Connecticut community college in the spring.

“All of your professors have your education as their best interest,” says Molly. She believes the core values of SJC reflect from the students and she is pleased with the personal attention she has received from the admission process to the classroom.

Molly feels welcome at SJC and encourages commuters to become involved as, “people here are always looking to make a friend.”

Program Spotlight: Social Work

Social Work is one of the fastest growing professions in the United States. As a Social Work major at SJC, you will gain the knowledge, skills, and values to empower individuals, to strengthen families and communities, and to promote civil and human rights.

Robert Madden, Ph.D., Professor of Social Work, was named Educator of the Year by The National Association of Social Work, CT Chapter, 2008.

Professional Advantages

- Strong network connections with community organizations and agencies
- Excellent preparation for graduate school
- Close mentoring relationship with faculty

Field Study Opportunities
Apply your education through work at local schools, hospitals, corporations, research centers, housing institutions and community organizations. Recent field study settings have included:

- Administration/Policy Settings
- Health/Mental Health Services
- Judicial/Corrections Settings
- Domestic Violence Shelters
- Youth Services
- Elderly Services
- Addiction/Substance Abuse Facilities
- Teen Parents/Pregnancy Programs
- School Settings
- Social Services

www.sjc.edu/social-work

Program Spotlight: Accounting

Earn a bachelor’s degree in Accounting and develop the knowledge and skills to succeed in the global marketplace.

Professional Advantages

- Exposure to a broad range of related classes in Management, Business Law, and Finance
- Continue on to the M.S. degree in Management
- Prepare for CPA and CMA exams

Internships
Students in the Accounting program participate in internships at sites such as:

- American Business Telephone
- Price-Waterhouse-Coopers
- The Phoenix
- Six Flags Theme Park
- State of Connecticut
- United Technologies

Accelerated Path to Graduate Study
Earn a Saint Joseph College Accounting bachelor’s degree and, as long as you are a student in good academic standing, you will be guaranteed admission to the master of science in Management program. During your undergraduate program, you can take up to two graduate classes that will count towards both your bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Focus on Education

Saint Joseph College offers a unique and personalized program in education.

Professional Advantages

- Outstanding reputation in the educational community
- Engaging coursework
- Academic and education advisors
- Opportunity to participate in the Education Club
- Weekly support visits from a College supervisor during student teaching

Our School of Education offers teacher licensure in Elementary Education, K-6 Secondary Education, 7-12 with content areas in Social Studies, English, Math, Science (General Biology & Chemistry), and World Language (Spanish).

The Special Education major at Saint Joseph College with teacher licensure and cross-endorsement to elementary teacher licensure is another program that makes SJC’s School of Education stand out.

Praxis Examination for Teacher

Licensure
Students who take and pass the Praxis I exam (or are exempt) prior to transfer have an advantage in their studies at SJC.

Students who transfer in Education courses such as Child Development Psychology, Adolescent Psychology and Life Span Development Psychology will need to complete the Praxis I requirement before taking any further Education courses.
