A CALL FOR ZENTANGLE ARTISTS

“Imagine Zentangle” Art Show Submission Form
Saturday, April 20, 2013
2:00-5:00 p.m. in The Bruyette Athenaeum’s 2nd Floor Reception Room

“Imagine Zentangle” is the first art show at the University of Saint Joseph (USJ) solely featuring work completed in the Zentangle method. It is a wonderful opportunity to display your art work, invite family and friends to see your work, and view the creativity of others. In addition, you will have an opportunity to meet the founders of Zentangle Rick Roberts and Maria Thomas as well as other artists in the community. Refreshments will be provided. This is a free event with no cost to submit or attend the show. Demonstrations and a product storefront will be present.

Conditions

- This is not a juried show; works are not judged and awards are not given. Artwork will not be placed for sale nor will sales transactions of your art take place at this show.
- All work submitted must have been created using the Zentangle method. All forms and mediums of art will be accepted using this method including, but not limited to, 2D, 3D, paper, cloth, clothing, and objects.
- Those who contribute artwork will receive invitations to send out to family and friends.
- USJ reserves the right to photograph entries for the purposes of documentation, publication, education or publicity of this event. Photography will be permitted at the event.
- If your artwork requires special accommodations in order to be displayed, please be sure to provide the necessary equipment for the proper exhibition of your art (i.e. quilts).
- All artwork must be labeled with your name; it does not need to be visible when exhibited. If there is a particular way the piece needs to be viewed, label the “top” on back of the item. Each submission will also be tagged with a temporary removable identification number.
- Work will be arranged and exhibited with common themes. If you have multiple submissions they will likely not be exhibited together and may be placed throughout the room.
- We will make every effort to ensure that all submissions can be returned to their owners in their original condition. However, the University of Saint Joseph disclaims any liability for the loss, damage, or theft of any artwork exhibited or stored on its premises. If no special arrangements are made, all art not picked up by May 1, 2013 will be donated to charity.
